

Places to look for funding in Alberta (January 2005):

BIG Database Canada – this is a massive on-line resource that allows fundraisers to search through lists of private funders and foundations. There's a fee to join and search.

<http://www.bigdatabase.ca>

Canadian Community Monitoring Network: offer up many tools and resources, including a document on fundraising, with links to funders -

http://www.ccmn.ca/english/library/bridge_funding/bridge_funding_summ.html

Canadian Environmental Grants Network: offer many resources and searchable on-line database

<http://www.cegn.org/grantmaking/dbintro.html>

Environmental Assistance Directory, Alberta Agriculture - compiled in 2002 a list of funders. You can browse the directory at:

http://www1.agric.gov.ab.ca/\$department/deptdocs.nsf/all/aesa6464?opendocument

Green Source, EcoAction 2000 – Environment Canada has compiled a great resource, called Green Source, which offers a http://www.ec.gc.ca/ecoaction/grnsrc/index_e.cfm

Stewardship Canada – a national portal for everything stewardship. Searchable grant/funder database found under the Stewardship Directories Tab.

http://www.stewardshipcanada.ca/sc_national/main/index.asp?sProv=ca